

Nous avons reçu de la British Sundial Society son bulletin 33 (i) du mois de mars 2021 (en version papier). Thank you !

Au sommaire :

1. Editorial
2. Time for Recreation and Re-Creation. Part 2: The Re-birth of a Large Polyhedral Sundial – David Brown
7. Obituary: Mike Isaacs – Douglas Bateman
8. The Tetracycle Dial – Mark Lennox-Boyd
10. Newly Reported Dials, 2020 – John Foad
17. The Equation of Time at Kew – Andrew Hodgson
18. Restoration of the Kinloch Anderson Sundial in Edinburgh – Alastair Hunter
22. Penshurst Place, Kent – JD
23. Square and Compasses – Jill Wilson and Christine Northeast
30. Daniel Nithsdale, alias Nistel – Simon Bateman
31. The 'Large Acres' Sundial – Sue Manston
36. Sundials, Guardsmen and Scarecrows – Valery Dmitriev
38. In the Footsteps of Thomas Ross. Part 34: Some Sundials from Cupar, Kinross and Alloa – Dennis Cowie
42. Postcard Potpourri 54: The Old St Stephen's Church, Robin Hood's Bay – Peter Ransom
42. Mystery Sundial Location – Sue Manston
43. Trustees' Annual Report 2020
48. BSS Accounts for the Year Ended 31 December 2020, with associated reports